The journey from "I to We

It's been more than 4 months, getting back from Shodhgram, from one of my best life experiences. NIRMAN helped me realise where exactly my long-term Happiness lies! I got the courage to choose the less travelled path and the strength to strive, for getting on that path! I am now capable to decide and develop my own principles and values, trying to live on them as well. I learnt the importance of principles like Compassion, Equality, Injustice and Honesty. Amongst all that I learnt here, my best learnings are "To Reach Across, Go Deep" and "तुझं काय ते बोल, general assumption नकोय!"

I wasn't selected in one go, but that made me think meticulously and seek more knowledge. Being with NIRMAN from 2018, I am fully enjoying this process of getting into a better version of myself. I am reading, I am thinking, learning, experimenting, observing, self-analysing n I am searching answers for my own questions. And NIRMAN made this journey the most exciting one. I have become a bit more thoughtful, more brave, more rational, more understanding, more joyous, less ignorant and less judgemental than before. NIRMAN gave me that long lost Confidence and the Direction. I have been working on knowing and accepting my Strengths and Weaknesses. Still in the Process, long way to go!

It was a safe space for everyone, with the friendliest mentors one can ever get. Seeing everyone express themselves without any fear of judgement or being misunderstood was Bliss. Be it someone lightening their emotional baggage or someone accepting their ignorance or someone trying to share his/her perspective and insecurities. Or someone or someone trying to test his drive and searching for his/her Values. The cherishing friendships I got, the casual yet deep talks over tea, the inspirational n dynamic discussions, the enlightening sessions, the great Icons I got to know, the late night strolls alongside the lake, all the thought provoking activities we invested our minds n hearts in... made that 7-8 days memorable for me.

I think, all the confused n restless minds out there finding a purpose, a direction should definitely be a part of this revered family. Because, neither does our college teach about thought weapons and skills to face life nor does our College Katta provide the comfort to pour out all that bothers us. Anyone having the sense of belonging to the people, the society, wants himself to flourish n his Character to develop, who wants to live to the fullest, who has lot many questions for life, who thinks his happiness doesn't come with a Price Tag and the one who believes in CHANGE.....this is the right place for u! You will get to know many likeminded people, you will know the right kind of approach to take life decisions, you will know...How Amazing the journey from "I to We" can be! NIRMAN will help you get the Meaning in life.....
